Data Portal
STATISTICAL DATABASE

Statistical Indicators & Summaries
Designed for the Public

Data is the main axis in digital transformation plans in today's world. Where the traditional technical solutions is no longer the perfect option to deliver the data and statistical database to all user types taking into consideration all their variant and different needs.

The next wave of information boards that the platform's database worked to put into reality within a frame action reinforces the relationship between the organization and its clients. They are as follows:

Data Management

The platform provides a full work frame & tools needed to build various data indexes, Codec lists, pointers.
Content Enhancement by providing the Metadata Tools.

Enhance user experience

Customize platform content according to interests and customer requirements. And provides a «subscribe» feature.

Publication Policy

Build a publishing calendar for institutes products.
Build functional roles and connecting them with the Institutes products.

Safe Platform

User management and access permissions to the Platforms Services and different roles.
Build access permissions to data on different levels.

Ease of Access to Products

Building easy indexes with the Institutes products , connecting them all products & accessing them from smart search tools.
"favorite" feature that helps the client to build their favorite product list.

Share & Export Data

Providing data sharing services (Data API) to enable customers to build data integration solutions.
Export data in different formats. (Excel , PDF , CSV , ...)

Product Analysis & Review

The platform provides basic analysis tools and self-service tools.
Provide search parameters to customize results.

Mobile Applications

A special mobile application integrated with the platform and compatible with operating systems IOS , Android .
Single sign-up between the platform and the mobile app.

Statistical database is a platform that allows users of different categories to navigate through the available data and statistical database. The portal provides statistical reports and summaries designed to serve all types of users and taking into consideration all their needs. The database also contains a number of functions that simulate the functions that are based on international standards in the design of statistical databases.

Statistical Database Functions

Search
Enable the users to search all database content

Metadata Bar
The Metadata Bar presents information about each table. which are split into three sections; Main Information, Methodologies and Other Info

Help
2 types of helps injected in the data base, one of them as FAQ, and another help tool is like a journey through the basics of moving around the website

My Queries
"My Queries" is a personalization tool only available for logged in users. It gives the option to create personal folders.

Export
Export" to print or save report in different formats. Include HTML, CSV, and Excel

Charts
to access charts menu and select the desired chart type to present the report.

Format
«Format" to edit report values text format. Format can be performed on all report values or based on specific condition.

API link
"API link" to generate API link based on custom report dimensions and in desired language.

Options
"Options" button to edit report layout and totals preview.

Fields
"Fields" to edit report filters, labels and measured value, and to customize the statistical table to satisfy user's needs.